

Military Children Essay Contest 2019

Sponsored by

100 Tickets are on a first come first serve basis and MUST include one essay or video in the family (limit 4 tickets per family) will be available for military children ages 11-18 that are willing to write an essay or create a video on one of the 37 Hall of Famers who served during WWII (all information of the players are on the website at www.actofvaloraward.org)

ENTER TO WIN

Essay Deadline: June 15, 2019

Oriole's game dates are June 25th and August 2nd.

Only one essay or video per child will be accepted

5 winners will be selected from the 11-14 age bracket and 5 from the 15-18 age bracket.

Tickets distributed by the USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore.

The Paper OR VIDEO should explain how the young person was influenced by one of the 37 Hall of Famers who served in WWII and how they can utilize the lessons learned in overcoming their own adversities and challenges as a military child.

The 10 best essays or videos selected will have the opportunity to observe (with a parent) batting practice prior to the game. The 10 best essays or videos will also be considered for selection as the overall winner of the Military Children's Essay Contest and be honored at the United States Navy Memorial in DC in November of 2019.

For more information or questions call

Peter Fertig at 516 -901-5969 or Steve Curtis 207-974-9029

How to Apply:

www.actofvaloraward.org/hall-of-fame-essay-contest

to see directions on how to upload essay, directly on the Website.